

Access Nashville Replication Manual Registration Form

It is important that the “accessibility-friendly” spirit of Access Nashville be maintained, and that organizations replicating this project are identified and accessible. More specifically:

- New partners will gather and disseminate accessibility-friendly information about restaurants and NOT assess compliance of businesses with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).
- New partners receiving this replication manual will be contacted to determine the usefulness of this information, ease in replicating the training in other communities, and to include other accessibility information on the Access Nashville website.
- It is requested that this information be used at no cost to other individuals or agency groups.

If interested in replicating the Access Nashville project, please visit accessnashvilleonline.org to complete registration online, or mail this registration form to:
